5. COMPLIANCE OFFICER

1. The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for compliance of policies, procedures, maintenance of records, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of unpublished price sensitive information, monitoring of trades and the implementation of the Code of Conduct under the overall supervision of the Board of Directors.
2. Assisting all employees in addressing any clarifications in the Regulations or this Code.
3. Advising all Designated Persons not to trade in securities of the Company when the Trading Window is closed.
4. Obtaining disclosures from Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel, Designated Persons and other connected persons and to give information, in respect of the disclosures received, to all the Stock Exchanges where the securities are listed, as applicable.
5. The Compliance Officer shall furnish to the Chairman of the Audit Committee a report on compliance of Code by designated persons on half yearly basis.
6. The Compliance officer shall maintain records of all the declarations in the appropriate form given by the Directors / designated persons for a minimum period of five years.

6. PRESERVATION OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

1. All the information is to be handled on "need to know" basis. It should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty.
2. All Designated Persons and Connected Persons shall maintain the confidentiality of price sensitive information.
3. No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
4. No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
5. UPSI may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:
 - an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
 - not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of UPSI.

6. Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

7. PROHIBITION ON TRADING WHEN THE TRADING WINDOW IS CLOSED

1. The Designated Persons shall not trade in the securities of the Company when the Trading Window (trading period) to trade in Company's securities is closed.
2. The Trading Window shall be closed during any period as may be determined by the Compliance Officer, and shall be closed seven days before the happening of following events and shall reopen after 48 hours of making the said unpublished price sensitive information generally available to public:

- i) Declaration of Financial Results;
- ii) Declaration of dividends;
- iii) Change in Capital Structure
- iv) Merger, de-merger, acquisitions, delisting, disposals and expansion of business, amalgamation, takeovers, buy back and such other transactions;
- v) Material events in accordance with the Listing agreement.

8. PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

TRADING PLAN

1. An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
2. Such Trading plan shall:
 - i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Company and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results
 - (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
 - (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
 - (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
3. The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek express undertakings that:
 - (i) the person is not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information; or
 - (ii) he would ensure that any unpublished price sensitive information in his possession becomes generally available before he commences his trades; or such other undertaking as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan. The Compliance Officer may thereafter approve the plan.
4. The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the compliance officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed

9. PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADE

1. When the trading window is open, trading by designated persons including their immediate relatives shall be subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer, if the value of the proposed trade is above threshold limit. No designated person including their immediate relatives shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed. The application for pre-clearance shall be made in the Form I
2. The designated persons have to furnish an undertaking in Form I to the effect that:
 - (i) he / she has no access to or has not received “Price Sensitive Information” up to the time of signing of the undertaking.
 - (ii) in case he / she has access to or receives price sensitive information after signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction, he / she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his / her position and that he /she would completely refrain from trading in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
 - (iii) he / she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading.
 - (iv) he / she will not execute a contra trade within 6 months from the date of purchase / sell of the security pursuant to this application.
3. The Compliance Officer shall issue Pre-clearance Order after receipt of application in Form I.
4. After receiving the Pre-clearance Order, designated persons including their immediate relative shall execute the trade within seven trading days failing which a fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed.
5. The designated persons including their immediate relative shall promptly give a letter of “Confirmation of Deal” to the Compliance Officer upon completion of the deal in Form II. In case the designated person decides not to trade after securing pre-clearance he / she must report his / her decision in writing as per Form III.
6. The Compliance Officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations. If contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such restriction then the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.
